Tunis, Tunisia
A calm mood was marred when a number of young men, some armed with machetes, attempted to steal mourners' phones and cameras, and set fire to cars, leading the police to fire tear gas, some of which reached the cemetery and seemed to panic mourners somewhat. Those at the funeral chanted "stop the violence" and "we are all Chokri Belaid", as well as "Ghannouchi, assassin, criminal", a reference to Ennahda leader Rachid Ghannouchi, and "Tunisia is free, terrorism out". There were reports that an unusually high number of women attended the funeral. Banks, factories and some shops closed as part of a general strike, and Tunis Air suspended all its flights. <http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/middle-east-live/2013/feb/08/tunisia-turmoil-funeral-general-strike-live>
